

YORKSHIRE AND HUMBER LEADERS' EVIDENCE BRIEFINGS

Short on time but want the latest evidence updates? Join us for our termly online briefings where we'll signpost the latest evidence and supporting resources for schools and settings.

Overview

In these termly briefings we'll signpost the latest evidence and supporting resources from the Research Schools Network and Education Endowment Foundation (EEF).

Delivered by Huntington Research School, North Yorkshire Coast Research School and Exchange Research School, the sessions will include a 20 minute update with time at the end for questions and discussion.

Hosted on Zoom, the sessions are designed to support evidence-informed practice and school decision making.
